

To Whom This May Concern,

My name is Danielle Bahr, I am the Marketing Director for Chartwells Higher Education at Sacred Heart University. Kaleigh Mulcahy was the first Graphic Design Intern we have ever hired. Over the past 2 years with us, she has shown us the value of the position.

Kaleigh Mulcahy's communication skills and time management has made her a pleasure to work with. She worked remotely and we mainly communicated via email. Despite most communication being via email, Kaleigh was always easy to reach and willing to work. Many projects would come up at random and need to be done urgently and she was always able to meet deadlines.

Kaleigh's creativity has been admirable. She understood our brand and "look;" and was able to adapt all her designs to fit our needs. She has done an exceptional job with every project she worked on, including our concession screens in Sacred Heart University's Martire Family Arena, that newly opened January 2023.

I am pleased to offer my endorsement of Kaleigh Mulcahy as a highly capable candidate for the position she seeks. She is hardworking and provides originality in her work. I have confidence in her success.
